Dead.

OTTAWA, April 4.—Mr. Perley, M.P., is dead.

Budget Debate.

Debate on the budget continued up to adjournment for holiday on Wednesdays.

In favor of the H.B. Railway.

Petitions signed by all the Manitoba and Northwest members were presented to Dewdney, urging him as their representative in the Cabinet to do all in his power to favor aid to the Hudson's Bay Railway.

N.W. Real Property Act.

Sir John Thompson has given notice of a bill to amend the Territories real property act.

What's in a Name.

At a meeting in the Senate Committee Room, over which Lieut-Governor Royal presided, it was decided to ask the government to change the name Northwest Territories to British Canadian Territories or British American Western Territories. Several suggestions were made regarding immigration.

Still they come.

The sixth colonist train left Toronto on Wednesday, consisting of one thousand passengers.

Discharged.

McDuff, the Portage suspect, who was taken to Ontario on charge of murder, has been discharged.

Ontario Elections.

Ontario elections take place in the middle of June.

Not decided yet.

It has not been decided yet who will be Martin's successor in the Manitoba government. A great many rumors are afloat but nothing reliable.

Won't pay cash.

The Manitoba government has decided not to pay a cash bonus towards assisting H. B. Railway, but to guarantee interest for two years on $1,400,000 worth of bonds.

Seeding.

Seeding is in progress at Medicine Hat.

M. & N. W. Railway.

Commencing on Wednesday the M. & N. W. Railway will run a daily train into Winnipeg over the C.P.R.

Floods continuing.

The floods in the Southern States still continue.

Victory for the Conservatives.

The parliamentary election in Windsor England, resulted in a large conservative majority. Great surprise.

Going to pay the Piper.

At a meeting of the committee to enquire into the Bremner fur case, General Middleton acknowledged that he verbally told Reid to confiscate them, stating to give some to the officers of his staff and to himself. Middleton never got them, but he got a large quantity taken from Batche and other points during the rebellion. A box was taken from the boat by his aide de camp at Prince Albert, but didn't know who gave them to him. Hayter Reid said he wrote a letter at Fort Pitt in Middleton's camp with the general's orders to confiscate the furs; they were packed in bales; his own were sent to Regina, and others were forwarded to Middleton, Bedson and some other officers he did not know. Some three months afterwards he returned his own bale, having heard of the impropriety of their confiscation. The government have decided to pay the claim.

FRIDAY, APRIL 4, 1890.

PRINCE ALBERT.

The N. W. M. Police report for 1889 is to hand, and as usual presents for general information much that is interesting. The general efficiency of the several troops is apparent from the reports of the superintendents and inspectors in charge of the different divisions, and you will look in vain for any evidence of that widespread demoralization claimed by the Regina Leader as being general throughout the whole Force.

Not the least interesting part of the report is contained in the return of criminal and other cases tried during the past year. You will there find Prince Albert shown in her true colors, as being one of the most law-abiding towns in the Territories. Supt. Perry reports an importation of 1,086 gallons of wine and malt liquors, as well as 25,000 gallons of four per cent. beer, and that ninety per cent. of this quantity was imported by residents of the town. Still, not a single case of violation of the Liquor Law is reported.

Under such circumstances, it is difficult for us to understand that portion of the superintendent's report which reads:—"Another year's experience has given me no cause to change my views on this (liquor) question. Permits are nominally issued for domestic use only, but too often are obtained with the sole object of selling the liquor thus imported." * * * * *

Facts speak much louder than opinions, and so long as no violation of the law could be shown, we feel justified in expressing our regrets that a clause of the above kind should have found its way into the body of what—in other respects—is a valuable and comprehensive report.

THE POISON ORDINANCE.

Mr. Mitchell's amendment to the Poison Ordinance, passed at the last session of the Legislative Assembly, does not seem to meet with that approval which he expected. We understand that already actions have been taken under some of its provisions, and actual settlers have been forced to pay tribute. It is reported that Mr. Diehl, of Carlton, well known as a man not likely to wantonly violate a law, was obliged to set out poison to assist him in preventing wolves from destroying his fine herd of sheep. Some individual of a particularly high moral standard felt it his duty to inform, and Mr. Diehl acknowledging the act, was forced to increase the Territorial revenue to the tune of twenty-five or fifty dollars. This is only one instance, but fully shows the injustice of the amendments introduced, and which were supported by every member from Saskatchewan excepting Mr. Betts, who is reported as having protested against the interests of farmers who have gone extensively into sheep raising being made subservient to fur trading corporations. We hope to see this unjust amendment, which prevents farmers protecting their stock by the only means possible, repealed at the next session of the Assembly.

We trust our town fathers are not losing sight of the possibility of considerable discomfort to many of the ratepayers should an early thaw set in. Preparations for its coming should not be long delayed. Our drains, if properly opened up, are quite capable of carrying off most of the surplus water which this year is likely to be occasioned should a sudden not wave strike the town. The Council should immediately take steps towards having them put into proper shape. Channels should be made through the whole of them, particularly those that have but little face, unless this is done we can only look for a repetition of a year ago, and it should not be forgotten that on that occasion serious inconvenience and in some cases loss was the result of neglect in this respect. Since the above was put in type, we are pleased to know that the city engineer, with a staff of men, is hard at work clearing out the drains and getting everything in readiness for the coming thaw.

GENERAL NEWS.

Toronto, March 22.—The Canadian Pacific exhibition car is at North Toronto with a collection of samples of cereals raised in Alberta, Manitoba, Assiniboia and British Columbia.

Berlin, March 22.—It is stated that the Reichstag has such perfect confidence in Caprivi, the new Chancellor, that any extra supplies for military or naval purposes that he might ask would readily be granted, without any of the opposition hitherto displayed toward all credits demanded for the army and navy. His appointment to the chancellorship is heartily welcomed in Austria, where he is known as a strong upholder of the triple alliance.

The Prince of Wales arrived here this morning. He was received at the railway station by the Emperor, Empress Frederick and her daughters, and a number of princes of the reigning families. The German Emperor had a guard of honor at the station when the Prince alighted. The English national anthem was played by the band.

London, March 22.—The British steamer Virent has been abandoned at sea, with her shaft broken. The captain and eight of the crew have landed at Ferroe. The mate and fourteen other men were lost.

London, March 22.—Edmund Swateman, M.P. for Carnarvon district, is dead. He was a Conservative.

Many collieries have resumed work. By Monday the majority of the men will be back. Some jealousy exists regarding those who were previously conceded a second advance in July.

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned, and endorsed "Tender for Government Offices at Regina, N.W.T." will be received at this office until Friday 11th April 1890, for the several works required in the erection of Government Offices at Regina, N.W.T.

Specifications can be seen at the Department of Public Works, Ottawa, and at the office of H. J. Peters, Regina, N.W.T., on or after Friday, 21st of March, 1890, and tenders will not be considered unless made on form supplied and signed with the actual signature of tenderers.

An accepted bank cheque, payable to the order of the Minister of Public Works, equal to five per cent. of the amount of tender, must accompany each tender. This cheque will be forfeited if the party declines the contract or fails to complete the work contracted for, and will be returned in case of non-acceptance of tender.

The Department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.

By order, A. GORRELL, Secretary.

Department of Public Works, Ottawa, 17th March, 1890.

The mail stage was on time this week notwithstanding the bad roads and heavy load. During the trip up the stage had a couple of spills owing to the warm weather having thawed the loose snow away from the sides of the road and if the sleigh got the least bit off the road over it would go.

The first number of The Western World an illustrated monthly magazine devoted to western resources and development, comes to hand this week. It is issued on the 15th of each month. The first number is largely devoted to Winnipeg and vicinity. In the succeeding numbers the various towns and districts between Lake Superior and the Pacific coast will be taken up; one town being particularly dealt with in each number. Commencing with the second number a page will be devoted to each province of Manitoba and British Columbia, to the districts of Saskatchewan, Assiniboia and Alberta, in which will be given facts tending to show the development going on. The World is a grand undertaking and well worthy of patronage.

THE TEMPLAR'S CONCERT.

The concert given by the Royal Templars of Temperance, in the Presbyterian church, on Wednesday evening last, was a grand success in every way, and those who took part in it had spared no pains to thoroughly learn their parts. The choir of Prince Rupert's Council opened the concert with the "Royal Templar's Battle Cry." Then Prince Albert's old favorite, Mrs. Sproat, sang "Bonnie Dundee," and for an encore sang "Jack of Hazeldean." An instrumental duet by Messrs. Way and Cann was followed by Mr. Tessier, who sang "Anchored" in his usual style; after which the Rev. Dr. Jardine showed "How Ruby Played," which was well received. Mrs. McCall sang "Would I Were with Thee" in her old effective style, and Mr. Halbhous gave a cornet solo in like manner. "Thy Voice is Near" was well and effectively sung by Miss Dilworth, and a "Review of a Wasted Life" was well recited by Miss Plaxton. Mr. Beeby sang "The Captivating Duke," and was not allowed to resume his seat until he had sung another song.

The second part of the programme began with an instrumental duet by Mrs. Porter and Mrs. Shannon. Mr. Stull reviewed the order of templars and its objects in this district, in a short speech; then Miss Hotson sang two songs, which showed she was thoroughly master of music. Miss Hotson is a great acquisition to our musical talent and it is to be hoped she will often favor a Prince Albert audience with her singing. Mr. Strachan recited "King John and the Abbot," followed by Mr. Neely, who sang "Forever and Forever" and "Strangers Yet," for an encore, and Mr. Brooks sang "Goodbye Mavourneen" and "Annie Laurie," for an encore. The evening's entertainment was brought to a close by the choir singing "Awake, Oh Happy Nation," and God Save the Queen.

The proceeds of the evening amounted to $50.
